Re: Plea Agreement with MILAN AWON

Dear Mr. Lustberg:

This letter sets forth the plea agreement between your client, MILAN AWON, and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey ("this Office"). The government's offer to enter into this plea agreement will expire on October 12, 2015 if it is not accepted in writing by that date.

Charge

Conditioned on the understandings specified below, this Office will accept a guilty plea from MILAN AWON to a one-count Superseding Information that charges that MILAN AWON aided and abetted the transmission in interstate commerce of communications containing threats to injure the person of another, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 875(c) and 2. If MILAN AWON enters a guilty plea and is sentenced on this charge, and otherwise fully complies with all of the terms of this agreement, this Office: (a) will dismiss the two-count Indictment in United States v. Milan Awon, Crim. No. 15-204 (AET), charging MILAN AWON with conspiracy to commit Hobbs Act Extortion, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1951(a) (Count One), and attempted Hobbs Act Extortion, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1951(a) and 2 (Count Two); and (b) will not initiate any further criminal charges against MILAN AWON for conspiring and/or attempting to extort Victim-1, or for aiding and abetting the transmission in interstate commerce of communications containing threats to injure Victim-1, from in or around September 2013 through in or around October 2013. However, in the event that a guilty plea in this matter is not entered for any reason or the judgment of conviction entered as a result of this guilty plea does not remain in full force and effect, MILAN AWON agrees that any dismissed charges and any other charges that are not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date this agreement is signed by MILAN AWON may be commenced against him, notwithstanding the expiration of the limitations period after MILAN AWON signs the agreement.

Sentencing

The violation of 18 U.S.C. § 875(c) to which MILAN AWON agrees to plead guilty carries a statutory maximum prison sentence of 5 years and a statutory maximum fine equal to the greatest of: (1) $250,000, or (2) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary gain that any persons derived from the offense, or (3) twice the gross amount of any pecuniary loss sustained by any victims of the offense. Fines imposed by the sentencing judge may be subject to the payment of interest.

The sentence to be imposed upon MILAN AWON is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge, subject to the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3551-3742, and the sentencing judge's consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory, not mandatory. The sentencing judge may impose any reasonable sentence up to and including the statutory maximum term of imprisonment and the maximum statutory fine. This Office cannot and does not make any representation or promise as to what guideline range may be found by the sentencing judge, or as to what sentence MILAN AWON ultimately will receive.

Further, in addition to imposing any other penalty on MILAN AWON, the sentencing judge: (1) will order MILAN AWON to pay an assessment of $100 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013, which assessment must be paid by the date of sentencing; (2) must order MILAN AWON to pay restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A; and (3) pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583, may require MILAN AWON to serve a term of supervised release of not more than 3 years, which will begin at the expiration of any term of imprisonment imposed. Should MILAN AWON be placed on a term of supervised release and subsequently violate any of the conditions of supervised release before the expiration of its term, MILAN AWON may be sentenced to not more than 2 years' imprisonment in addition to any prison term previously imposed, regardless of the statutory maximum term of imprisonment set forth above and without credit for time previously served on post-release supervision, and may be sentenced to an additional term of supervised release.

Rights of This Office Regarding Sentencing

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, this Office reserves its right to take any position with respect to the appropriate sentence to be imposed on MILAN AWON by the sentencing judge, to correct any misstatements relating to the sentencing proceedings, and to provide the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office all law and information relevant to sentencing, favorable or otherwise. In addition, this Office may inform the sentencing judge and the United States Probation Office of: (1) this agreement; and (2) the full nature and extent of MILAN AWON's activities and relevant conduct with respect to this case.

Stipulations

This Office and MILAN AWON agree to stipulate at sentencing to the statements set forth in the attached Schedule A, which hereby is made a part of this plea agreement. This agreement to stipulate, however, cannot and does not bind the sentencing judge, who may make independent factual findings and may reject any or all of the stipulations entered into by the parties. To the extent that the parties do not stipulate to a particular fact or legal conclusion, each reserves the right to argue the existence of and the effect of any such fact or conclusion upon the sentence. Moreover, this agreement to stipulate on the part of this Office is based on the information and evidence that this Office possesses as of the date of this agreement. Thus, if this Office obtains or receives additional evidence or information prior to sentencing that it determines to be credible and to be materially in conflict with any stipulation in the attached Schedule A, this Office shall not be bound by any such stipulation. A determination that any stipulation is not binding shall not release either this Office or MILAN AWON from any other portion of this agreement, including any other stipulation. If the sentencing court rejects a stipulation, both parties reserve the right to argue on appeal or at post-sentencing proceedings that the sentencing court was within its discretion and authority to do so. These stipulations do not restrict this Office's right to respond to questions from the Court and to correct misinformation that has been provided to the Court.

Waiver of Appeal and Post-Sentencing Rights

As set forth in Schedule A, this Office and MILAN AWON waive certain rights to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion after sentencing, including but not limited to an appeal under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 or a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

Immigration Consequences

MILAN AWON understands that, if he is not a citizen of the United States, his guilty plea to the charged offense will likely result in his being subject to immigration proceedings and removed from the United States by making him deportable, excludable, or inadmissible, or ending his naturalization. MILAN AWON understands that the immigration consequences of this plea will be imposed in a separate proceeding before the immigration authorities. MILAN AWON wants and agrees to plead guilty to the charged offense regardless of any immigration consequences of this plea, even if this plea will cause his removal from the United States. MILAN AWON understands that he is bound by his guilty plea regardless of any immigration consequences of the plea. Accordingly, MILAN AWON waives any and all challenges to his guilty plea and to his sentence based on any immigration consequences, and agrees not to seek to withdraw his guilty plea, or to file a direct appeal or any kind of collateral attack challenging his guilty plea, conviction, or sentence, based on any immigration consequences of his guilty plea.

Other Provisions

This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey and cannot bind other federal, state, or local authorities. However, this Office will bring this agreement to the attention of other prosecuting offices, if requested to do so.

This agreement was reached without regard to any civil or administrative matters that may be pending or commenced in the future against MILAN AWON. This agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof (including the Internal Revenue Service and Immigration and Customs Enforcement) or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceeding against MILAN AWON.

No provision of this agreement shall preclude MILAN AWON from pursuing in an appropriate forum, when permitted by law, an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that MILAN AWON received constitutionally ineffective assistance of counsel.

No Other Promises

This agreement constitutes the plea agreement between MILAN AWON and this Office and supersedes any previous agreements between them. No additional promises, agreements, or conditions have been made or will be made unless set forth in writing and signed by the parties.

Very truly yours,

PAUL J. FISHMAN
United States Attorney

Plea Agreement With MILAN AWON

Schedule A

1. This Office and MILAN AWON recognize that the United States Sentencing Guidelines are not binding upon the Court. This Office and MILAN AWON nevertheless agree to the stipulations set forth herein, and agree that the Court should sentence MILAN AWON within the Guidelines range that results from the total Guidelines offense level set forth below. This Office and MILAN AWON further agree that neither party will argue for the imposition of a sentence outside the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level.

2. The version of the United States Sentencing Guidelines effective November 1, 2014 applies in this case. The applicable guideline is U.S.S.G. § 2A6.1.

3. This guideline carries a Base Offense Level of 12. U.S.S.G. § 2A6.1(a)(1).

4. As of the date of this letter, MILAN AWON has clearly demonstrated a recognition and affirmative acceptance of personal responsibility for the offense charged. Therefore, a downward adjustment of 2 levels for acceptance of responsibility is appropriate if MILAN AWON's acceptance of responsibility continues through the date of sentencing. See U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a).

5. In accordance with the above, the parties agree that the total Guidelines offense level applicable to MILAN AWON is 10 (the "agreed total Guidelines offense level").

6. The parties agree not to seek or argue for any upward or downward departure, adjustment, or variance not set forth herein. The parties further agree that a sentence within the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level is reasonable.

7. MILAN AWON knows that he has and, except as noted below in this paragraph, voluntarily waives, the right to file any appeal, any collateral attack, or any other writ or motion, including but not limited to an appeal under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 or a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, which challenges the sentence imposed by the sentencing court if that sentence falls within or below the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level of 10. This Office will not file any appeal, motion, or writ which challenges the sentence imposed by the sentencing court if that sentence falls within or above the Guidelines range that results from the agreed total Guidelines offense level of 10. The parties reserve any right they may have under 18 U.S.C. § 3742 to appeal the sentencing court's determination of the criminal history category. The provisions of this paragraph are binding on the parties even if the Court employs a Guidelines analysis different from that stipulated to herein. Furthermore, if the sentencing court accepts a stipulation, both parties waive the right to file an appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion claiming that the sentencing court erred in doing so.

8. Both parties reserve the right to oppose or move to dismiss any appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion barred by the preceding paragraph and to file or to oppose any appeal, collateral attack, writ, or motion not barred by the preceding paragraph.
